

If you have not received education on the safe and sanitary storage, handling, appropriate usage, and consumption of food/beverages brought in from outside the facility, you may not use the pantry at this time. Please see the unit's nursing supervisor for information on how to receive this education.

Thank you for your understanding and help with keeping our residents happy and healthy!

